

Antonyms – Opposites (lesson notes)

1. In your books, write out all five words and underline the two words that are opposite to each other. Number them. P36. SEN extra sheets
2. On one line write these prefixes into your books un mis dis ir im in il

Here is an example: happy \Longrightarrow unhappy behave

pleasant
appear
polite
convenient

possible
regular logical appropriate
understand

3. Choose a pair of antonyms/opposites and write two sentences. One with happy in, another with unhappy in.
4. Antonyms wordsearch
5. Look up the meaning of the words and their antonyms and write the two meanings into your books like this:

happy \Longrightarrow feeling or showing contentment or pleasure unhappy \Longrightarrow not happy